

Code of Behaviour

The Code of School Behaviour for Silkwood State School

"State Schools in Queensland are committed to providing quality learning opportunities that enable all students to achieve within safe, supportive and disciplined learning environments. The Staff are to maintain high standards of ethical behaviour as established in the Department of Education's Code of Conduct. All members of school communities are to abide by The Code of School Behaviour in accordance with the following standards..."

Click here to view The Code of School Behaviour for Silkwood State School.